

BRIGHTON PIER

110 year anniversary
1899-2009

It was in 1899 that Brighton Pier was officially opened to the public.

Since that time and over many years and with ongoing development and private investment, the Pier has evolved into one of the key tourist attractions in the South East.

To mark this anniversary, you are invited to attend our exclusive afternoon reception which will reflect on the past, present and future of Brighton Pier and the vital role of tourism within Brighton & Hove.

22nd October 2009

3pm – 5pm

Horatio's Bar, Brighton Pier

Enjoy drinks, light bites, entertainment and networking!

Please see next page...

WORKMEN AND SEAFARERS PALACE

BRIGHTON PIER

110 year anniversary
1899-2009

There will an opening welcome from
Brighton Mayor, Councillor Ann Norman

Scott Marshall, Director of Cultural Services,
Brighton & Hove City Council will give a short talk to set the scene for tourism, culture and enterprise
within the city.

This will be followed by a keynote address by
Jeremy Brinkworth, Head of Industry Services,
Visit England

We hope you can join us!

*Anne Martin
General Manager*

Please RSVP to info@brightonpier.co.uk

in partnership with

visitBrighton

www.visitbrighton.com